Tollman Bouchard Finlayson Art Award 2020 Tondo Competition

Information and Rules

This is an international competition.

The works of 60 - 70 finalists form the Tollman Bouchard Finlayson Tondi Exhibition.

Prize money to the value of R45,000 will be allocated at the judges' discretion.

Theme: Biomimicry - design inspired by nature

Format/Size: Tondo (round), 60cms diameter (less than 60cms is no longer accepted), including any mount or frame. Maximum weight 12kgs.

Media: The following media will be accepted: Paper, canvas, board, perspex, fabric, embroidery, collage, mixed media, wood, glass, ceramic, mosaic, metal, photography, digitally/mechanically produced, quilting and photo-based.

Presentation: Works may be submitted framed or unframed. Works on paper must be framed behind glass for their protection, while unframed works must be suitably mounted on a firm backing as necessary. Works must be ready for hanging (with a normal attachment as if to hang on a wall) as they will hang vertically on the barrel heads. Do not use double-sided tape to affix the hanging arrangement as it is not strong enough in the cellar conditions.

NB! Please ensure that your full name and the title of your artwork are written clearly on the back of each work. Artworks may be signed on the front.

Entrance fee: R130 per work. There is no limit to the number of works per entrant.

*An additional fee of R135 per work is payable if your artwork must be posted back to you.

Commission: All works must be for sale. A sales commission of 25% will be payable to Hermanus FynArts. Your quoted selling price must include this commission.

Exhibition: The finalists' works will be exhibited in the Bouchard Finlayson wine cellar in Hermanus. These works must remain on exhibition during the festival (5 – 16 June 2020) and for an extended period thereafter until 31 August 2020.

Postal entries: Must be received by Friday 15 May 2020.
